King of Hell™

All out war between the Sects and their loved ones! Will the Insane Hounds live up to their names by staying and fighting or will they show a little sense and run away with their tails between their legs? And what's Majeh's role in all of this?

Find out in volume 12!

KING OF HELL

WHO THE HELL...?

MAJEH:

When he was alive, Majeh was an extremely powerful and much-feared warrior. In death, Majeh was recruited to be a collector of souls for the King of Hell. Recently, Majeh was returned to his human form in order to destroy escaped evil spirits for the King of Hell. There are two catches, however: Majeh's full powers are restrained by a mystical seal and his physical form is that of a teenage boy.

CHUNG POONG NAMGOONG:

A coward from a once-respected family, Chung Poong left home hoping to prove himself at the Martial Arts Tournament in Nakyang. Broke and desperate, Chung Poong tried to rob Majeh. In a very rare moment of pity, Majeh allowed Chung Poong to live,..and to tag along with him to the tournament.

DOHWA BAIK:

A vivacious vixen whose weapons of choice are poisoned needles. After repeatedly humiliating the hapless trio known as the Insane Hounds, she joined Majeh and Chung Poong on the way to the tournament.

KING OF HELL:

You were expecting horns and a pitchfork? This benevolent, otherworldly ruler reigns over the souls of the dead like a shepherd tending his flock.

SAMHUK:

Originally sent by the King of Hell to spy on the unpredictable Majeh, Samhuk was quickly discovered and now—much to his dismay—acts as the warrior's ghostly manservant.

THE MARTIAL ARTS CHILD PRODIGIES

DOHAK:

A 15-year-old monk and a master at fighting with a rod, he was affiliated with the Sorim Temple in the Soong mountains. After being kidnapped, Dohak was transformed into a fighting zombie of the Soo Ra Hyur Chun sect, making him a blood-craving killing machine who retained the fighting abilities he'd developed when he was alive. When Dohak was ordered to attack Majeh, Majeh had no choice but to slay the young monk. True to form, Dohak thanked Majeh with his dying breath.

YOUNG

A 15-year-old sword-master possessing incredible speed, he is affiliated with Mooyoung Moon--a clan of assassins 500 strong. After seeing Majeh defeat the demon-possessed master at the martial arts tournament, Young admitted he has no interest in fighting Majeh...though Young's curiosity has driven the youthful assassin to accompany Majeh on his current mission.

POONG CHUN:

A 12-year-old expert with the broadsword, he is affiliated with the Shaman Sect. Poong Chun is the "uncle" (martial arts superior) of Chun Hae--Chung Poong's older brother. As a direct result of Chun Hae's abuse of Chung Poong, Majeh took great pains to publicly torture and humiliate Poong Chun at the tournament. Poong Chun was apparently kidnapped along with most of the other young martial arts prodigies.

CRAZY DOG

A 6-year-old club-wielding hellion from a remote village, Crazy Dog lived up to his name right up to the moment of his death at the hands of a demon-possessed martial arts master.

BABY:

A 15-year-old from the infamous Blood Sect, Baby is several warriors in one...thanks to his multiple personality disorder. Baby is shy, gentle, and blushing; Hyur-ah is intense, unforgiving, and murderous, and Kwang is even scarier than Hyur-ah. The question remains: who--or what--else is also inside this young man?

CHUNG HAE.

Chung Poong's older brother and Poong Chun's martial arts "nephew" (inferior). Recently, Chung Hae went out of his way to publicly shame Chung Poong, and Majeh's subsequent humiliation of Poong Chun certainly didn't improve the brothers' relationship. Chung Hae was apparently kidnapped along with most of the other young martial arts prodigies.

MO YOUNG BAIK:

Self-described master of all the martial arts and host of the Nakyang Martial Arts Tournament. Though Mo Young has only a small understanding of Majeh's abilities, he has still placed his trust in Hell's cockiest envoy.

MR SECRETARY:

Mo-Young's subordinate, who seems to have a lot more brewing than any good secretary should.

HUNTER:

A demon hunter of the Chung Myun Hhk Soo, little is known about Hunter (as he's known thus far) except that he's in his twenties, he's a little sensitive about his age, and he's an incredible fighter who's so afraid of bugs that they make him scream like a little girl.

What The Hell...?

Hell's worst inmates have escaped and fled to Earth. Seeking recently-deceased bodies to host their bitter souls, these malevolent master fighters are part of an evil scheme that could have dire consequences for both This World and the Next World. It is believed that the escaped fiends are hunting for bodies of martial arts experts, as only bodies trained in martial arts would be capable of properly employing their incredible skills.

To make matters even more difficult, the otherworldly energy emitted by the fugitives will dissipate within one month's time...after which, they will be indistinguishable from normal humans and undetectable to those from the Next World. The King of Hell has assigned Majeh to hunt down Hell's Most Wanted and return them to the Next World...but Majeh doesn't always do exactly what he's told.

Majeh was a master swordsman in life and, in death, he serves as an envoy for the King of Hell, escorting souls of the dead to the Next World. Majeh caught Samhuk--a servant for the King of Hell--spying on him and, after making the appropriate threats, now uses Samhuk as his own servant as well.

The King of Hell has reunited Majeh's spirit with his physical body, which was perfectly preserved for 300 years. Due to the influence of a Superhuman Strength Sealing Symbol (designed to keep the rebellious and powerful Majeh in check), Majeh's physical form has reverted to a teenaged state. Even with the seal in place, however, Majeh is still an extremely formidable warrior.

Along with the young, wannabe-warrior called Chung Poong Namgoong and a beautiful femme fatale named Dohwa Baik, Majeh has made his way to the much-heralded Martial Arts Tournament at Nakyang--the most likely place for the warrior demons to make their appearance.

it was worth risking their lives to increase their abilities. However, in typical fashion, Majeh neglected to tell the duo about the risks before they left.

Meanwhile, Majeh and the Mooyoung Moon assassin known as Young searched for the missing martial arts prodigies and discovered a diabolical plot to transform the kidnapped martial arts prodigies into zombies and start a war between the Black and White sects. The architects of this evil plan appear to be the Sa Gok, a vicious, powerful group that almost brought down the entire martial arts world fifty years ago. Unfortunately, most of the sects believe the Sa Gok were utterly eradicated... which means they can only blame each other for their missing children.

After reporting their findings to Mo Young, Majeh and Young ventured to Devil Mountain to explore a tomb that had the town talking about treasure. At the entrance to the tomb, they found many warriors fighting to keep each other out. Eventually, many different groups entered and Majeh and Young followed the powerful fighter known as Hunter into the depths of the tomb. After fighting their way through many elaborate traps, all of the fighters found themselves in a central chamber, surrounded by animated corpses that kept rising no matter how severely they were wounded. Majeh and co. feigned defeat in order to draw out the people behind the animated corpses.

After a violent confrontation, Majeh and his companions made it out of the mountain, only to discover that the White and Black Sects were lining up for battle on a nearby plain. Without a moment's hesitation, Majeh decided to fight them all--one at a time. As quickly as fighters from each Sect would step up to face him, Hell's cockiest envoy would smack them down. And he's still going...
